

SHE KEEPS SECRET OF HER WEDDING FOR FOUR WHOLE YEARS

Newark Teacher Announces
Marriage by Asking School
Board to Change Name.

After keeping her secret for nearly four years, Miss Mabel F. Garbrant, a teacher in the Hamburg place public school, Newark, N. J., amazed friends to-day by telling them that since December 14, 1908, she has been the wife of William H. Wack, a clerk in the National Exchange Bank, Manhattan.

Congratulations were mixed with the wondering and envious question, "How in the world did you keep the secret as long as that?"

It was learned that Miss Garbrant went to the secretary of the Board of Education a few days ago and had him change her name to "Mrs. Wack" on the roster. The announcement received yesterday by friends stated that the marriage had been performed in Elizabeth, N. J., the former home of Mr. Wack, by Dr. William F. Whitaker of the First Presbyterian Church.

Until very recently Mrs. Wack continued to live home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Garbrant, at No. 280 Walnut street, Newark. She did not confide her secret even to her mother until shortly before she and her husband decided to go housekeeping. Mr. Wack meantime lived at No. 381 Mulberry street, just around the corner from his wife's home.

"There is nothing in the law in this State that prevents a married woman from teaching in the public school," said Mrs. Garbrant, "but Mabel thought she would be free from possible embarrassment if she continued to pass as a single girl. She intends to retire at the close of this school term next June. That is why she informed the Board of Education of her status."

INVALID KILLS HERSELF.

Mrs. John Hannan of Brooklyn
Drinks Carbolic Acid.

Mrs. John Hannan, the wife of a silversmith, killed herself by drinking carbolic acid at her home, No. 810 Pacific street, Brooklyn, early to-day. She had been a bed-ridden invalid for fifteen years and lately had suffered from melancholia. After hinting that she meant to end her life.

Mrs. Hannan heard her choking in her room to-day and ran in, to find her at the point of death. He at once telephoned to the family physician, Dr. Goussard, of No. 818 Carlton avenue, but she was dead before he arrived.

And His Stomach Is All Right

Thousands with Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's
Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals.

Whether or not we eat too much, is a matter for individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he doesn't anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of sour stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets gives quick relief.

This is but a natural condition. Anything else borders upon the indigestion which fosters indigestion and chronic dyspepsia.

It may be safely said that it should not be a question of diet or kind of food, or teeth or even any of the reflexes which are supposed to have their influence in deranging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with those known assistants such as pepsin and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food. This saves your stomach and gives it the rest it needs. All muscles require occasional rest. If they are ever overtaxed. The stomach is no exception to this rule.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will wonder how you ever got along without them. They are sold at 50 cents by all druggists everywhere.
